1. I, [redacted], understand that I may be the recipient of information and intelligence which concerns the present and future security of the United States and which belongs to the United States. This information and intelligence, together with the methods of collecting and handling it, are classified according to security standards set by the U. S. Government. I have read and understand the provisions of the Act of Congress of 15 June 1917, (Espionage Act) as amended, concerning the disclosure of information relating to the national defense and I am familiar with the penalties provided for the violation thereof.

2. I acknowledge that I do not now, nor shall I ever possess any right, interest, title or claim in or to any of the information or intelligence of the methods of collecting or handling it which has come or shall come to my attention by virtue of my connection with the U. S. Government, but shall always recognize the property right of the United States of America, in and to such matters.

3. I do solemnly swear that I will never divulge, publish or reveal either by word, conduct, or by any other means any classified intelligence or knowledge, except in the performance of my official duties and in accordance with the laws of the United States, unless specifically authorized in writing, in each case, by the U. S. Government.

4. I understand that no change in my relationship with the U. S. Government will relieve me of my obligation under this oath and that the provisions of this oath will remain binding upon me even after the termination of my services with the United States Government.

5. I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 14 day of April, 1957
